

Institutes of Public Life Sessions on Organizing:
Broad Based Organizing for Social Change and Social Justice

---

-  How does community organizing work in the context of a religious organization?
-  How does it work for other kinds of organization?
-  How is it different than other approaches to social change and social justice?
-  What is the difference between works of charity and works of justice?

Explore with veteran leaders and staff of A Mid-Iowa Organizing Strategy (AMOS) how this organizing approach to social change is an effective vehicle for:

- Transformative leadership development
- Winning concrete improvements to our communities
- Forming strong relationships across the lines that divide

North Metro Session:

---

Saturday, January 12 at 9 a.m.

Ankeny Christian Church
 2506 SW 3rd St., Ankeny

Ames Session:

---

Thursday, January 17 at 7:00 p.m.

Bethesda Lutheran Church
 1517 Northwestern, Ames

West Metro Session:

---

Tuesday, January 22 at 7 p.m.

Walnut Hills United Methodist
 12321 Hickman Road, Urbandale

The AMOS Institute of Public Life is a leadership training institute affiliated with A Mid-Iowa Organizing Strategy. AMOS IPL provides a regular training series designed to help ordinary citizens figure out how and why they should get involved in the decision making process of their community. Trainings taught by the professional staff and veteran leadership of A Mid-Iowa Organizing Strategy (AMOS), an affiliate of the nation's oldest and largest professional organizing network, the Industrial Areas Foundation (IAF).

www.amosiowa.org
www.swiaf.org